I have and still am very much enjoyinewthe material on your website.e. It makes me feel as if i am with you on your trips and it brings back good memories of very nice places i have been myself while i was a travelling diving instructori I have picked up windsurfing 3 years ago, because it brings me so much fulfillment.It would be nice to see you at The Mission in Holland in august and perhaps even have a chat. See you.Best regards Maikel.

Hola, Action Man! Just wanna tell you we got lots of fun during "Sur PAlegre" in St. Pere Pescador where we met you last week-end. We were the 4 Spanish girls you gave TShirts and danced together in the disco. It was really a pleasure to get to know you 'couse you're a great windsurfer and above all ay ery charming chap ("un tio guai" in Spanish). We'll never forget your wonderful smile, your energy and your "ACTION". Good luck and be happy! Whenever you come back to Barcelona or surroundings, you know where you have some friends to show you up the cool places to have a good time. TAKE CARE AND NEVER STOP FOLLOWING YOUR DREAMS. Love&kisses. Imma and the rest. (June 15th.2004)

Brian, just checked out your web site. Looks like you're having a blast and doing just wonderful as an ambursadorfor Barbados. Randy Gross and I were talking about the old days at Eckerd College and your name came uadoSo I looked you up on Yahoo. Check you out later, Sid

Hey Brian! Remember me? Randy, goalkeeper at Eckerd and fellow surfer? Looks like you took it a step further. We're thinking about coming to Barbados for vacation and thought of you and found you on the internet. Looking to come in late October, early November. Looking for waves, not wind! What part of the island is the best? Believe it ongot I'm still surfing and to a great woman and moved to

Long Island, NY. The water temp is 48 degrees today. How does that sound? Glad to hear you're doing great. Do you keep in touch with anyone from Eckerd? I keep in touch with Evan Ellis and Sid Reese, do you remember them? Just gsurfed 10-foot swells. Can Barbados match that? Hope to hear from you soon.
